September 2024

The month of September is full of interesting activities.

We look forward to seeing you participate.

Lecture: "What is a Modern Quilt?"

Unfortunately, Carole Lyles Shaw who was supposed to talk with us, Suddenly passed away. The whole quilt world is mourning her passing.

Judi Kirk agreed to give us her lecture on the subject. Judi is a member of both the Modern section of the Quilters Guild of the British Isles and the Modern Quilt Guild. In this talk she looks at the current definitions of Modern quilts and illustrate what the terms mean. You will gain a better understanding of what makes a quilt Modern and may find that you have been "quilting modern" without knowing it!

Please join us – the lecture is in English – free of charge just sign up on the website.

The lecture will be recorded and available to watch for 2 weeks.

Brno 2025

The Chez quilter invited us to participate with them in the Brno Exhibition in April 2025. The subject of their group is "Silk Garden". They sent us fabrics to incorporate in the quilt. As there was a big demand. We did a lottery. All the winners were notified.

We wish the participants good luck and look forward to seeing their quilts.

Brocade fabric line to use in the quilts.
